The screenshot shows a web interface for a QR code generator. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the title "QR Code Generator" and three menu items: "QR code with logo", "QR code management", and "QR code API". The main content area is divided into three sections:

- 1. Type: A grid of icons representing different QR code types (e.g., text, image, location, calendar).
- 2. Contents: A text input field containing the URL "https://h5p.org/". Below the field, it says "16 characters" and provides a hint: "Hint: The shorter, the better. Some older scanner apps are having problems with texts longer than about 300 chars." There is also a security notice: "Your QR code data is encrypted during transmission (TLS/SSL) and not stored." Below this are social sharing buttons for "Like", "+1", and "Tweet".
- 3. Live preview: A large QR code is displayed. A red starburst icon above it says "Add a logo!". Below the QR code are two buttons: "Download" and "Embed".

At the bottom of the interface, there is a section titled "Your QR code on:" showing four examples of QR codes on different items: a white t-shirt, a white mug, a business card for "John Doe", and a white messenger bag. Below this section is a link for "Information about our QR code generator".

An orange callout box on the left side of the image contains the text "Adresse hier einfügen" (Address enter here) and has an arrow pointing to the URL input field in the "2. Contents" section.
